English Season

From September to December 2018

Schauspielhaus Zürich is delighted to present selected works from its repertoire for an English-speaking audience.

Discussion in English

with David Graeber and Lukas Bärfuss
14 September, 8 p.m., Pfauen, CHF 30 / 15*

Lukas Bärfuss and anthropologist David Graeber discuss his latest book, "Bullshit Jobs", in which he exposes the social damage caused by meaningless jobs.

Mass für Mass / Measure for Measure

By William Shakespeare, directed by Jan Bosse
15 September, 8 p.m., 21 October, 3 p.m., Pfauen, CHF 20-108 / 10-74*
In German with English surtitles by SUBTEXT, Dóra Kapusta

Shakespeare's last, most political and sombre comedy is a discussion of government, justice, power, guilt and morality.

Eine Version der Geschichte / A Version of the Story

by Simone Kucher, directed by Marco Milling 23 October, 1 / 4 November, 7:30 p.m., Pfauen / Kammer, CHF 30 / 15*
In German with English surtitles

This play, which was seen as a guest production at the Autorentheatertage festival in Berlin, narrates the story of an Armenian family's hushed-up past and the historic events of the past century.

Hamlet

by William Shakespeare, directed by Barbara Frey
26 September, 30 October, 7 / 20 December, 8 p.m., Pfauen, CHF 20-108 / 10-74*
In German with English surtitles by SUBTEXT, Dóra Kapusta

Probably the most famous drama in world literature, Hamlet is considered a key work of the modern age.

Endstation Sehnsucht / A Streetcar named Desire

By Tennessee Williams, directed by Bastian Kraft
20 November, 8 p.m., Pfauen, CHF 20-108 / 10-74*
In German with English surtitles by SUBTEXT, Dóra Kapusta

This socially critical play, which was first performed in German at the Schauspielhaus Zürich in 1949 and won the Pulitzer Prize that same year, was one of the author's greatest successes.
